The HumanDrive Consortium

HumanDrive is jointly funded by UK government through the Centre for Connected and Autonomous Vehicles (CCAV) and Innovate UK, and the consortium partners

To find out more visit www.humandrive.co.uk

HUMAN DRIVE

The consortium partners:

NISSAN
Lead partner responsible for heading up the autonomous vehicle (AV) development

HITACHI Inspire the Next
Developer of Artificial Intelligence which enables human-like control and perception

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS
Responsible for understanding humanistic driving and its application to AVs while also developing a driver risk model

CATAPULT Connected Places
Responsible for project management, communications and marketing activity, dissemination and safety case elements of the project

highways england
Supported with establishing the infrastructure needs for AV deployment

Cranfield University
Provider of test facilities and supporter of AV demonstrations aimsun.

Responsible for studying the impact of AVs on the transport system

A HORIBA COMPANY MIRA
Provider of test facilities and supported safety aspects of the project

ATKINS Member of the SNC-Lavalin Group
Responsible for the provision of a Cyber Security Framework

SBD
Provider of cyber security support and AV Human Machine Interface (HMI) studies